

Canadian Member At Large (CMAL)

BOMA Calgary and BOMA Canada are affiliated with BOMA International; however, your membership in the local association does not automatically confer member privileges in BOMA International. BOMA International has a broad range of events, activities, and services which may be of value to Canadian BOMA members.

You can access these services at your option by becoming a CMAL for a nominal fee of $100 USD.

If you do these things, you may find it beneficial to become a CMAL:

- Participate in surveys like the Experience Exchange Report (EER)
- Participate in the BOMA International Awards
- Attend BOMA International meetings and conferences.

You will have to be a CMAL of BOMA International to:

- Receive discounted prices on BOMA International products, publications and services.
- Attend BOMA conferences at the member rate
- Participate in the BOMA International Awards.

How to become a CMAL.

1. You first must be a paid member of BOMA Calgary. Non-BOMA members are not eligible for this class of membership.
2. Advise the BOMA office of your desire to become a CMAL by
 - a. Calling 403.237-0559
 - b. Email info@boma.ca with CMAL in the subject line.
3. Provide payment of $125 CAD by
 - a. Sending a cheque in this amount payable to BOMA Calgary
 - b. Requesting a credit card authorization
4. Processing could take as long as two weeks or more.
